

COLOUR BLEND COLLECTION

COLOUR BLEND RUG

Fatboy and Carole Baijings developed the Colour Blend Rug, which translates the spontaneity of a sketch into a remarkably caressable carpet.

Here's the story

It started with a sketch. Designer Carole Baijings surprised herself with color combinations created spontaneously. Her rough lines are lively; her color choices unexpected. And because the lines flow into one another, additional colors seem to materialize. Colour Blend Rug translates all those incidental imperfections into a rug that just makes you happy. And one that will blend with any interior. Powerful, colorful, and so very soft.

About Carole Baijings

Like Fatboy, Carole Baijings constantly lets you see everyday objects in a different light. One-of-a-kind color combinations, textures and transparencies play an important role in all this. Fatboy and Carole previously collaborated on the 'A Pop of Colour' collection. The Colour Blend Rugs are part of a natural progression: the 'Colour Blend' collection, which comprises rugs, blankets and the promise of more enchanting blends to follow. "While designing, I like to be surprised by the colors created by blending: sometimes more powerful, other times warmer. Together they form an unexpected yet logical new whole," says Carole.
