

PENSOL

Parasol with a retro twist

The Pensol is anything but your average parasol. With a bold nod to the tip of a pencil, Fatboy brings a touch of retro vibes to your garden. The wavy edges – reminiscent of pencil shavings – add a classic twist to the design. Whether you're reading, lounging, or hosting a large gathering: the oversized Pensol provides enough shade for all your friends. It's a parasol that feels like the sixties, but with all the modern functionality of today.

Practical to its very tip

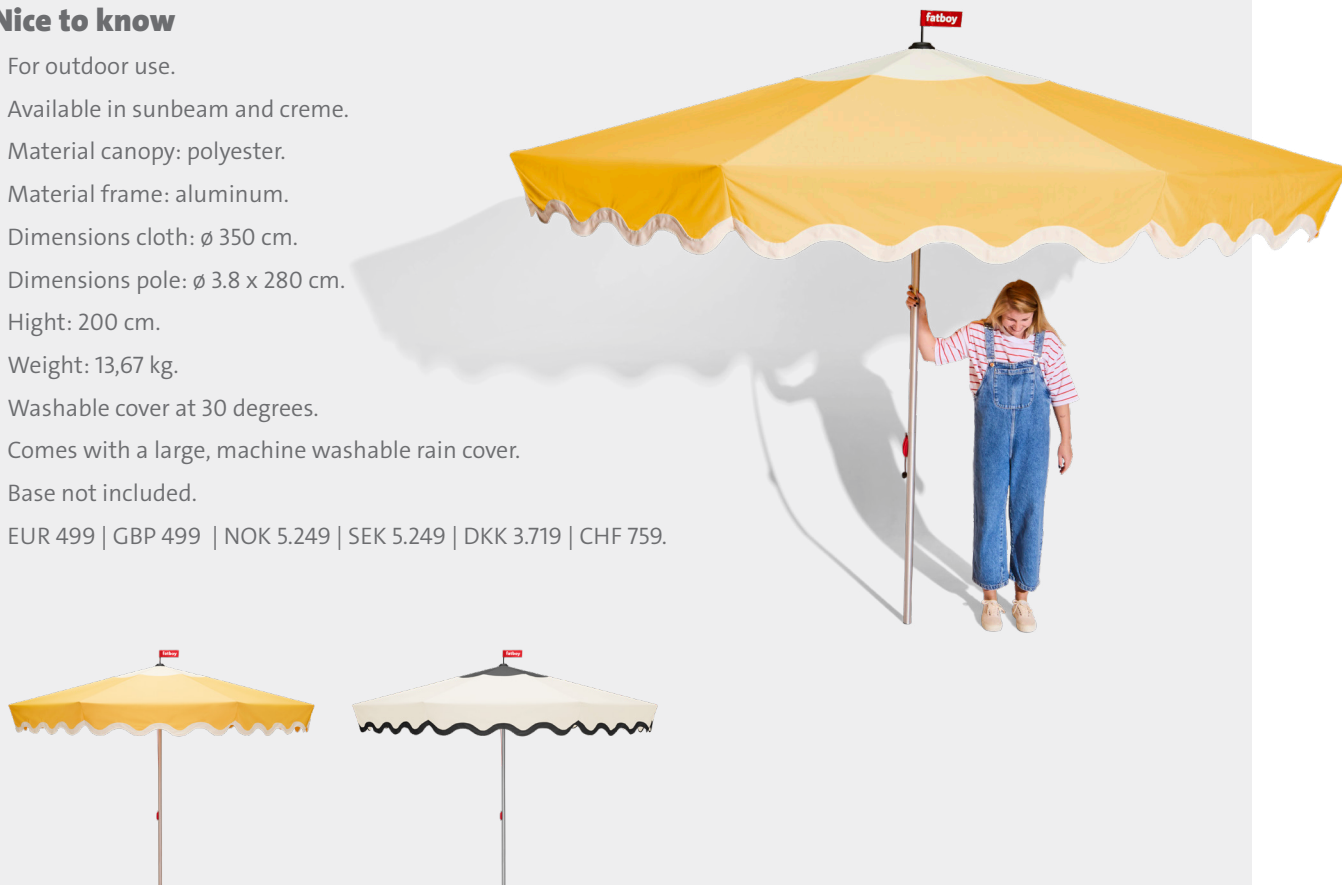

Not only is the design razor-sharp, but the Pensol is also practical to its core. The washable fabric is made of polyester that won't fade in the sun. So you can leave it out in the sun all day long. It also offers excellent protection against the sun's strong UV rays. The fabric measures 3.5 meters in diameter and is water- and dirt-repellent. A sudden rain shower? No problem. And when the sun sets, you can easily fold it up and protect your Pensol with the included cover. That iconic Fatboy flag on top? It's the perfect finishing touch.

Set it up!

Whether you place it in your garden or on a sunny balcony, the Pensol parasol from Fatboy stays securely in place. Its sturdy aluminum frame is built to withstand some wear and tear and fits perfectly into the specially designed Fatboy parasol base (sold separately). With the Pensol, you're getting more than just a parasol—you're adding a statement piece and a sunshade that you'll enjoy for years to come. Set it up and enjoy your Pensol!
