

PALETTI ROYAL

Meet the Paletti Royal, a regal version of Fatboy's outdoor hero Paletti. The design of this modular lounge set is inspired by transport pallets. And, as the name suggests, the Paletti Royal will make you feel like royalty. It's made of an opulent, sturdy material: high-quality olefin. This luxurious and heavy fabric has a subtle shine and a two-color weave. Paletti Royal is a smart, modular lounge solution that sets the bar high for comfort and flexibility. With its spacious layout, the Paletti Royal is designed to celebrate the good life, together with more people than you would expect.

The royal way to lounge

You can create your own unique relaxation corner in no time with Paletti Royal. Put together your own set, exactly the way you want it. With and without backrests, with or without corner elements. The choice is yours. Whether you have a large garden, a cozy balcony or a small terrace: Paletti Royal adapts effortlessly to any space and always gives you a royal seating experience. Long rain showers coming? Then the Paletti Cover fits like a glove. And when autumn comes your way, you can easily store it thanks to the stackable design. Mix and match the elements, invite everyone, and relax.

Endless pleasure

When it comes to lounging, Fatboy knows exactly how to chill out for years to come without worries. Paletti Royal pillows are filled with high-quality memory foam for long-lasting comfort and support. Thanks to the strong fabric, Paletti Royal is water and dirt repellent, stain and UV resistant. Still worried about spills? No problem. You can easily clean it with lukewarm water and mild detergent. This means your lounge area will remain beautiful and colorful year after year. The covers of the Paletti Royal are available in different colors, so you can always find one that suits your taste.
